

I am a very concerned Indiana resident. Our household is very happy with the current version of the "No Call List" and from where I stand the only way that this can be changed is through the federal government. I implore the federal government to stay the hell away from and to not mess up a very GOOD LAW for the residents of Indiana.